> Remain in control and keep track of the worldwide corporate web – with Creditreform’s international expertise and skills network.

Secure your outstanding payments worldwide.

You have done a good job, but your customer refuses to pay? Then talk to us – the sooner, the better. Your personal Creditreform contact will take care of everything.

Total workload relief.

Creditreform handles all the dunning and debt-collection instances, as well as the international correspondence and phone calls. As the largest principal for European debt-collection proceedings, we efficiently relieve your workload by handling all the “donkey work”.

Save time, enjoy full transparency, and participate in the decision-making at every stage.

Experienced partners.

We know that your aim is an amicable and speedy closure. That's why we make this our top priority: by reaching agreements like instalment payments or alternative concessions, we strive for fastest possible resolution in your best interest.

Avoid court costs, attorney fees and hard feelings.

Local Know-how.

Our international debt-collection partners are experts in their respective countries. They have a local presence, speak your customer's native language, and understand the local legal system.

Benefit from the market experience of local experts, and improve your chances of success.

Worldwide at your side.

Europe's No. 1 is also the first choice worldwide: with our own subsidiaries abroad and a longstanding, international partner network – comprising leading credit information companies, selected rating agencies, debt-collection organisations and local solicitors – Creditreform is a globally active player.
